TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. These are the terms on which DatacenterDynamics agree to accept the booking for its training course. They represent the entire agreement between you and DatacenterDynamics and by signing the training booking form you accept these terms and agree that any terms and conditions that you may supply or have supplied to DatacenterDynamics will not apply.

2. Telephone bookings will be noted but will not be deemed to be binding on DatacenterDynamics, DatacenterDynamics may resell the place until we have confirmed receipt of the written booking form. Written confirmation can only be accepted by DatacenterDynamics in the form of a booking form, duly signed and returned within five (5) working days. DatacenterDynamics may, at its discretion, extend this period.

3. DatacenterDynamics will, on receipt of a completed and signed training booking form issue an invoice, which must be paid in full within 15 days from the issue date or before the course commencement date, whichever comes first. The attendee will not be admitted on the course unless the course fee has been paid by the commencement date.

4. Substitutions may be made at any time. Cancellations must be received more than 30 days before the date of the training and will be subject to an administration fee of $500 in case of CDCD™ course and $220 in case of 1 day courses. All cancellations must be made in writing. Cancellations made within a month before the training are subject to the full fee.

5. For course date rescheduling requests received a month or more before the course date, no charge will be made. For rescheduling requests received less than 30 days before the course commencement date, an administration fee of $500 in case of CDCD™ course and $220 in case of 1 day courses will be charged.

6. DatacenterDynamics's advertised prices are subject to change at any time. Details of up to date prices are available from DatacenterDynamics. DatacenterDynamics may increase the price of an accepted booking by giving you notice in writing of the increase. The notice will specify that you may, within 30 days of receipt of the notice, give us a further notice cancelling the booking.

All payments made will then be refunded in full and neither party will have any further liability to the other in respect of the booking. If counter notice is not given the increased fee will become due in full.

7. We reserve the right to change the date, location and / or the designated speaker at any course, but will ensure that alternatives are suitable for the purpose.

8. In the event that DatacenterDynamics has to cancel a course for insufficient attendance or circumstance beyond their reasonable control notice will be given and DatacenterDynamics will, in full settlement of its liability to you, refund all payments made in full.

9. All course material, documentation, course handouts and similar items are subject to copyright owned by CNet and may not be reproduced in full or in part without the prior written consent of CNet. Should Customers require further copies of such documentation for colleagues or attendees they should contact DatacenterDynamics who may be prepared to sell such copies to them, for a further fee.

10. The names and details of attendees on all courses are confidential and you agree not to release such details concerning other attendees to any third party.

11. Reasonable care has been taken to ensure that written material available at courses and the content of presentations, is correct as at the date stated in the written material. They take no account of updates in law or practice beyond that date. Written material should not be relied upon except by those who have attended a DatacenterDynamics training course and should be read in conjunction with the instruction given at that course. DatacenterDynamics's total liability for any claim arising from any inaccuracy or omission in the material or the presentation shall never exceed $50,000 but DatacenterDynamics accepts no liability for consequential loss.

12. You are responsible for yourself and your attendees whilst at DatacenterDynamics, the course location or in accommodation provided by DatacenterDynamics. You will indemnify DatacenterDynamics in full against any loss or damage cost or claim incurred by DatacenterDynamics as a result of your or their behaviour, acts or omissions. Any attendees who behave in a manner deemed by DatacenterDynamics to be disruptive to the course or to other students may be excluded from the course and no refund of fees will be made.

13. DatacenterDynamics accepts no liability for personal effects, motor vehicles or other items brought on to any such premises by you or your attendees and you will indemnify DatacenterDynamics against any claim which may be made against DatacenterDynamics for their loss or damage.

14. Save as provided in conditions 9 and 11 and claims for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, DatacenterDynamics accepts no liability for any claims howsoever caused including loss arising from the negligence of DatacenterDynamics and its agents and employees.

15. Data protection: DatacenterDynamics reserves the right to contact its customers with regards to the products and services it offers. It is the policy of DatacenterDynamics and the DatacenterTrainingServices never to release contact information to third parties outside its carefully selected partners. DatacenterDynamics may only use an individual's personal information for the purpose of sending to the individual details of its services or those offered by its marketing partners.
